

Parent/Child Phone-Internet Agreement 2018

- I will always tell the truth about what I am doing on my phone or computer. Not telling the truth takes away your trust in me and it's really hard to get that back.
- I will not use my phone/computer to do anything mean—no bullying, no teasing, no being rude.
- I will not take pictures of people and post them without permission.
- My social networks are limited to (e.g. Facebook and Snapchat). We will discuss adding more later when I show you responsibility using these.
- I will put my phone/iPad in the kitchen every night by _____p.m. and I understand this phone is yours—you will check it whenever you want to, to keep me safe.
- I will always report any unusual online behaviour to my parents/guardians as well as any behaviour that scares or worries me.
- My mobile phone is a way for me to communicate to my parents.
- I will not give my PIN or password to any of my friends.
- I will not download or use any apps, nor will I visit any sites that have been "banned" by my parents/guardians.
- I will give you my PIN codes and passwords.
- I will only accept friend requests from my "real-life" friends.
- This phone/computer will not turn me into a rude person; I will not answer it while in a restaurant, movies or while talking to another human being.
- I understand that I am responsible for where my phone, iPad or laptop is and for keeping it in good condition.
- I understand that having my phone/computer is a privilege, not a right. If I abuse this privilege my phone will be taken off me.
- I will not give out my personal information on the internet.
- I will make sure my profiles are set to private.
